Level Up Your Laughter, Sydney: The World's First Live-Action Video Game Comedy

KARATE MAN is an interactive sketch show where the main character is controlled by the audience the entire time, thanks to a bluetooth video game controller. "PUNCH", "JUMP" and "PAUSE" your way through a cast of Sydney's top alternative comedians, led by absurdist sketch superstars Bruno Dubosarsky and Daniel Scarratt, this November 11-12 at Improv Theatre Sydney.

Debuting earlier this year at the Sydney Fringe Festival, Dubosarsky and Scarratt of sketch troupe BEAK earned a nomination for Best In Comedy with KARATE MAN. As Issy Flower pointed out in her 5-star review at Edinburgh Fringe 2022, BEAK is "refreshingly original" and "in the absurdist tradition of Monty Python and The Mighty Boosh", as you will soon be able to see for yourself.

The show's choose-your-own-adventure story keeps the talented supporting cast—Stephanie Ryan, Tim Dunk and Juliet Rae Timmerman—on their toes, ready to embody big, bizarre characters... that some audience will never get to see! Each play-through is unique, and it's up to the audience to choose what path they send Karate Man down. "Please somebody choose Fashion Industry" begged Dubosarsky and Scarratt. "We love the Pizzeria and Army career paths, but we still haven't seen Karate Man work in fashion yet."

Join BEAK for this impressive technical spectacle, a top-tier eccentric comedy and a satisfying, emotionally fulfilling narrative. Secure your tickets now to see this unique blend of magic in action on November 11th and 12th, via the Improv Theatre Sydney website.
